2. About Us Page

Our Y-leaf Journey represents — from farm to your taste.

Zerothi was born from its origin in Nimar, Madhya Pradesh. It was a simple idea to bring the real taste of Nimar to modern homes. We focus on purity, process, and consistency. Coming from Nimar, where food is still rooted in tradition. We saw an opportunity to bring that same real taste to a wider market.

- BRAND JOURNEY - Zerothi is more than a food brand — it is a representation of Nimar taste, its farmers, its women-led craftsmanship, and a commitment to delivering real products made with honesty, tradition, and purpose.
- VISION - Zerothi was founded with a vision to bring the taste of the Nimar region to modern consumers while creating meaningful impact for local communities connected to its roots.
- MISSION - Nimad is known for its rich agricultural heritage, hardworking farmers, and traditional food culture. From banana farming to dairy-based products, the region carries a unique identity that is rarely represented in its purest form in the market. Zerothi was created to bridge that gap — by delivering authentic, unadulterated products that truly represent the soil, people, and traditions of Nimad.
